

worlds of related coercions
in work

WORCK

Reconceptualising Wage Labour
From a Long-Term and Transregional Perspective

WORCK Conference 1
16–19 September 2020

Virtual Conference hosted by the CEU Budapest (Hungary)

Hosts: Susan Zimmermann and Isidora Grubacki

Funded by the Horizon 2020 Framework
Programme of the European Union

Wed 16–09–2020

All times correspond to Central European Summer Time (UTC+2).

1:30–3:30pm

Introduction

Chair: Susan Zimmermann / Juliane Schiel

Juliane Schiel / Johan Heinsen —

Labour and coercion. Towards a new global social history

Christian De Vito — Reconceptualising wage labour. The conference programme

Silke Schwandt / Tobias Hodel —

Presentation of the WORCK Publication Platform

4:30–6:30pm

Round Table

Work and Coercion in the Neoliberal Academia

Chair: Juliane Schiel

Tereza Østbø Kuldova — Cynical ideology as a mode of workplace coercion in Norwegian institutions of higher education

Mariya Ivancheva — The academic gig economy? Digitalisation and casualisation in the wake of the Covid-19 online education trial

Cris Shore — Who owns university debt? Coercive accountancy and the new contractualism in UK higher education

Thu 17–09–2020

10:00–12:00am

Labour Coercion and Remuneration in the Medieval World

Chair: Juliane Schiel

Martin Andersson — Creating coercion through remuneration: Servant salaries in medieval Sweden

Colin Arnaud — Subdued wage labourers: Examples of ambiguity between wage labour and coercive labour in textile production in Western and Islamic medieval sources

Alexandra Vukovich — Debt and bondage in early Rus

12:00–1:00pm LUNCH BREAKOUT ROOMS

1:30–3:30pm

Ambiguous Labour Relations in the Early Modern World

Chair: Branimir Brgles

Jane Whittle — How free was wage labour in England 1500–1700? The case of servants

Carolina Uppenberg — Unpacking coercion: Dimensions of free and unfree labour in the Swedish Servant Acts, 1664–1858

Marco Tomaszewski — Dependencies and labour relations in the early modern linen industry of St. Gallen

Rossana Barragán — Wages: Servitude, mixed remuneration of free/unfree workers and struggles for in/dependency in the mines in Spanish America

4:30–6:30pm

Wages, Slavery and Abolitions in the Modern World

Chair: Benedetta Rossi

Fernando Jorge Cruz Mouta — Slavery and wage labour: Linguas and Grumetes in the 15th and 16th century West African coast

Samuel A. Nyanhoga — From abolitionism to subjugation: Interrogating the ambiguities of emancipation and labour practices in post-slavery Christian villages in the Swahili coast

Marjorie Carvalho de Souza — Free and freed labourers 'in witness whereof': Thinking about wage(less) labour with service

Fri 18-09-2020

10:00–12:00am

Coercion and Wages in the 20th Century

Chair: Isidora Grubacki

Müge Özbek — Between wage work and slavery: Commodification of rural female labour for the changing domestic labour markets of early 20th-century Istanbul

Nataša Milićević / Ljubinka Škodrić — Between wage labour and coercion: The case of civil servants in occupied Serbia 1941–1944

Camille Faroux — French women's and colonised forced labourers' work in the war plants in France in 1939–1940

Ivanka Petrova — Links between labour coercion and wage labour in socialist Bulgaria: A form of student seasonal wage labour

12:00–1:00pm LUNCH BREAKOUT ROOMS

1:30–3:30pm

Creating a Labour Force Through Coercion and Remuneration

Chair: Johan Heinsen

Akın Sefer — The mobilisation of wage labour for Ottoman state factories in the 19th century

Gabriele Marcon — 'Working his Excellency's mines': Wage labour and coercion in a 16th-century Tuscan mining district (1540s–1560s)

Marian Niedermayr — Forced wage labour in the viticultural enterprise of the Vienna City Hospital

Raquel Gil Montero — Mining and wages in the colonial Andes during the 17th century

4:30–6:30pm

Documents and Contracts of Coercion

Chair: Jakub Stofaník

Sigrid Wadauer — Contracts under duress: Work documents as a matter and means of negotiation (Habsburg Monarchy/Austria in the late 19th and early 20th century)

Martino Sacchi — Identification cards and the power over mobility in Martinique after the abolition of slavery (1852–1872)

Ferruccio Ricciardi — The enigma of 'colonial workers': Contracts, constraints and social rights in the French Empire (1900–1950s)

Claudia Bernardi — Scales of labour coercion and (im)mobility: Undocumented and documented contract migrant workers across Mexico

Sat 19-09-2020

10:00–12:00am

Discourses on Coercion

Chair: Eszter Bartha

Judith Spicksley — Voluntary enslavement: Contract and coercion?

Kaveh Yazdani — Political economy, capitalism and discourses on free and unfree labour, c. 17th to 19th centuries

Ana Luleva — Freedom and coercion: Discourses on labour in state-socialism: The Bulgarian case

Titas Chakraborty — Hired work and ascendancy of the East India Company State in Bengal, 1650–1817

12:00–1:00pm LUNCH BREAKOUT ROOMS

1:30–3:30pm

Manipulating Remuneration, Managing Labour

Chair: Isidora Grubacki

Viola Müller — Profit vs. culture: Employment choices between slave and wage labour in the 19th-century US Urban South

Nico Pizzolato — Debt, contract, coercion: Managing rural labour from coast to coast in 20th-century United States

4:30–6:30pm

Coercion and Precarisation

Chair: Christian De Vito

Bridget Kenny — Trading time, producing political subjects: Struggles over store trading hours and the category 'worker' in Johannesburg, South Africa, 1960s–1980s

Massimiliano Livi — Free the work to free life from work: A trend historical analysis of 'freedom of work' in Italy since the 1970s

Cecilia Kovai/András Vígvari — Labour coercion during crisis and conjunction: Lessons from rural Hungary between 2008 and 2018

Daniel Škobla/Richard Filčák — 'Labor activation' and the neoliberal workfare in contemporary Slovakia